

Top Ranked

CHAMBERS GLOBAL

- 2015 -

Leading Individual

Notable practitioners

“Sources describe Christopher Seagon as ‘one of the key administrators’ in Germany, and a ‘real authority in the automotive sector.’ He receives further praise for his ‘hands-on’ approach.”

“Jobst Wellensiek continues to enjoy a ‘very prominent position’ in the market. Interviewees commend his long-standing experience.”

Notable practitioners

“Alfred Hagebusch maintains an outstanding reputation in the German market. Interviewees describe him as exceptionally active, with roles in a vast number of major insolvencies, where he typically advises board members. Sources say: ‘He's a very senior and convincing lawyer, and an interesting person to boot.’”

“Market sources describe Richard Scholz as a ‘very experienced lawyer who knows insolvency law very well,’ adding: ‘He has a strong administration background so he knows all the tricks that administrators use - this gives him the edge on the advisory side.’”